

No Disney-like happy ending

The new year didn't start the way the Huskers had hoped with a 30-13 loss to South Carolina in the Capital One Bowl on Monday in Orlando, Fla. Dave Claus (clockwise from top) of Lincoln shows his Husker and Mickey Mouse spirit. Rex Burkhead dives for extra yardage on a first-half play. The junior finished with 89 yards rushing. Huskers Tyler Legate (bottom right), Ben Cotton and Kenny Bell celebrate an early touchdown. Steven Schmidt of Tacoma, Wash., does his own directing as the Nebraska Marching Band plays before the game. Just like Bo Pelini, South Carolina coach Steve Spurrier had some stressful moments. New Husker defensive assistant Rick Kaczenski and Eric Warfield talk during pregame warmups. Now Nebraska's defensive coordinator, John Pauchis celebrates a first-half stop.

you know Mickey

To Husker Rehab!

Paul Claus

Beware the Mouse

FRANCIS GARDLER/Lincoln Journal Star

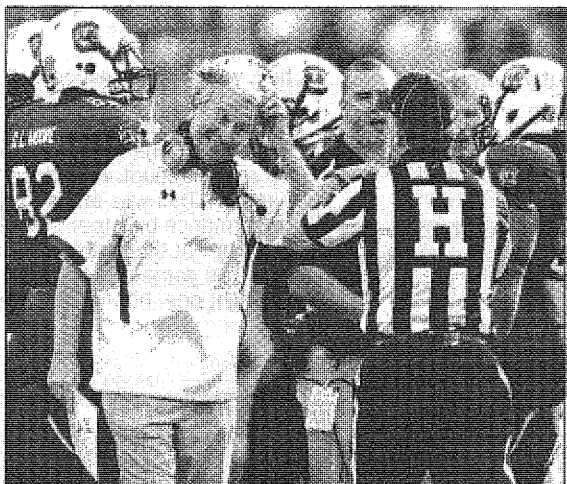

TED KIRK/Lincoln Journal Star

TED KIRK/Lincoln Journal Star

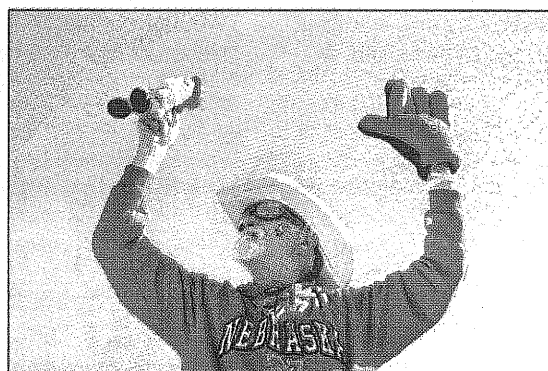

TED KIRK/Lincoln Journal Star

FRANCIS GARDLER/Lincoln Journal Star

JACOB HANNAH/Lincoln Journal Star

FRANCIS GARDLER/Lincoln Journal Star